² Under French law it is mandatory to have a civil liability insurance ("assurance responsabilité civile") to cover damage to another person or property. It is generally included with your home insurance but you should double-check. If it is not included (yet) you can subscribe it separately or add it to your home insurance. A proof must be provided at enrolment.
